

From time to time, your authorized Porsche dealer may install a component that is an updated version of original factory equipment. These updates of original factory equipment are due to changes in technology only and are not done to correct or remedy normal vehicle operating characteristics (as determined by Porsche) or conditions resulting from individual driving habits.

Time and Mileage Period

This warranty begins on the date the car is first delivered to the first retail purchaser or the date it is first used as a demonstrator, lease, or company car, whichever comes first.

The car is covered for four (4) years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first. The high-voltage battery is covered for eight (8) years or 100,000 miles, whichever comes first.

Porsche will cease to have any warranty obligations under the New Car Limited Warranty, and you will be responsible for all costs after the warranty coverage ends.

To Get Warranty Service Under the New Car Limited Warranty

You must take your car, along with proof of purchase date, to an authorized Porsche dealer during normal service hours. If the car is not driveable because of a failure covered by this warranty, call Porsche 24-Hour Roadside Assistance and your Porsche automobile will be transported to the nearest authorized Porsche dealership, or contact the nearest authorized Porsche dealer for further assistance. You are responsible for presenting your Porsche automobile to a Porsche dealer as soon as a problem exists. Failure to do so could result in consequential damage that may not be covered by your new car Limited Warranty. If you cannot obtain warranty service, or you are dissatisfied with the service or with a warranty decision, refer to the Consumer Information section in this Booklet.

Emergency Repairs

Should the car become completely disabled, requiring repair in order to be driven, and there is no authorized Porsche dealer in the vicinity, have the repair performed sufficient to drive the car and return the replaced parts and paid repair order to your authorized Porsche dealer for reimbursement consideration.
